Introduction

The Relocation Chart

A relocation chart is simply an ordinary natal horoscope moved to a different location. It's a chart cast for the same cosmic instant of birth, but looked at from another location, as if the birth happened there. The planets' sign positions all remain the same, but they will appear in different houses at different locations, thus altering their strengths and areas of influence. So, if you were born in New York, for instance, and then moved to Paris, your relocation chart would have any first house planets shifted about 90 degrees clockwise into the tenth house; tenth house planets would be shifted into the seventh house, and so on, thus giving your natal chart a whole new look for your Parisian adventures. In fact, if it turns out to be a significant improvement, you might even want to move there. Or, perhaps you might just want to visit when you are doing the kind of things that your Paris relocation chart favors -- work, play, health, creativity -- depending on your planets' relocated house positions.

The Relocation Map

Although any one relocation chart opens up new possibilities for you when you travel, if you put a lot of them together and trace them on a map you get a set of marked-out roads of opportunity that stretch around the world, each of which will add strength and emphasis to specific parts of your personality and potential. There is a geographical ribbon running many thousands of miles around the globe, every mile of which gives you Mars rising, adding to your energy and individual power whenever you are on it. Another gives you the Sun rising, another, the Moon, and so on. Around the other side of the earth are similar routes on which your planets are always exactly setting, on the cusp of the seventh house. Similarly, there are north-south pathways each 12,000 miles long where individual planets are on your Midheaven or IC if you go to them. Together, they make up an often-intersecting set of personal highways, a grid of 40 planetary lines that mark out your chart's strongest places for relocation, where one or more natal planets are on the angles.

And if that's not enough potential roads to travel on, there are a total of 180 global lines that depict where your 45 major planetary midpoints are on the angles, adding a subtle substructure to your planetary potential. Altogether, they depict your own personal World Wide Web of highways and byways that add special strengths to your chart and promise new heightened adventure and return for simply taking a trip. You'll find that there's hardly a place on the planet you can go without discovering a new slant on life, a new take on what you already have working inside you.

Windows Of Opportunity

Finally, as your personal progressions and transits move along and affect your natal chart, these same changes will be touching your relocation chart as well, but often quite differently. This will mean that certain parts of the world open up as unique windows of opportunity for a limited, but golden time. A look at these will tell you not only where to travel, but when is the optimum time to be there as well. Find out the best of where and when, and then book your ticket, with the stars on your side.

The Armchair Traveler

You don't have to actually show up at a strong relocation place to have it affect you. You may well find that areas where you have locality planets, midpoints, transits, or progressions on the angles have a way of waltzing into your life unannounced, or that you'll find yourself dealing with people who live there in a way that is described by your chart in that locality. In the era of electronic world travel, you may not need to go out of your door to find your different relocation charts working for you.

Angles in Signs

Ascendant in Aries

You're going to look a lot more aggressive and take-charge here, and if you choose to make the first move, chances are you can do it. In fact, it may be expected of you, so get used to the image. Just remember that first in is first attacked, and there should be extremely aware when you're the point person.

Midheaven in Capricorn

It will be natural for people here to expect you to deliver as promised, and they will assume to be responsible. That's great when you know the turf, but not always when you're on new ground. So, when in doubt, don't rush in where you may not be able to stay in, and you won't suffer from the delay.

Planets on Angles

Any planet on one of the angles (Ascendant, MC, Descendant, IC) of your relocation chart will be greatly strengthened when you are at the place of relocation, very much like if it were on the angles of your natal chart. If the Sun is on an angle, you'll have more confidence; if Mars is there you'll have more energy, and so on. Moreover, you don't have to actually go there to get the effect. Having a planet on a relocated angle will accentuate that place for you even if you are only doing business with people there over the phone. You have an accentuated quality to people in such places that you may not have elsewhere.

Natal Mercury On DS (Strong)

You can lead with your head here in ways that might be more difficult elsewhere. Somehow what you say will get across more clearly and your ability to analyze situations will be particularly strong. In a similar vein, you'll be able to pick up on the local lingo especially well; so if you have to go to a second language, you'll be able to do so more swiftly and communicate well despite initial language barriers. It is as if you find a shared mindset which you can immediately address because you already know what's being said, since it's what you were talking about to begin with. Remember, however, that head, heart, and hand are different functions, and though you may agree intellectually, there may be other subtexts that aren't so unusually in tune, so don't presume you've got everything surrounded just because you think you do. Agreements spoken or put on paper may come with ease, but take care that when the discussion is over you are all really on the same page at unspoken levels as well. When all is said and done, what's done is done and what's said may be only worth the paper it's written on. Nevertheless, you've got a distinct working advantage here.

Mercury in Sixth House

You can run a very trim ship here, organize the routine until it hums like a well-oiled machine. You can do the same thing for yourself, as you discover new approaches that energize your health and diet you might not have expected to find here. When in Rome, do as the Romans do -- the old phrase will work for you here.

Natal Saturn On AS (Strong)

When things get out of control where you are, this may be just the place to go to restore order in your life. But if things are already slow or restrictive, they'll probably get more so here. You may appear as quite the conservative to the local populous, however you may be regarded at home and may become an instrument of stability in the very process of steadying yourself, simply by getting back in touch with your basics and cutting the nonsense. Don't expect to live high on the hog here, as you may not find accustomed frills available to you, but the chances are that what you need will be available if you conserve your resources. You'll be at your best when dealing with older locals and helping them preserve their posterity and cultural traditions. Observe formalities and you'll find acceptance, criticize customs and you'll be cut off at the plate. Not the usual picture of paradise, this place holds the potential for a refreshing retreat, a reinstallation of inner order, and a place that won't change much for you over the years. Go there with great expectations and you may be disappointed. Return there to recover your inner foundations, and you may find home.

Saturn in Twelfth House

What you don't do here will come back to haunt you, so inaction is likely not your friend. Holding back at the wrong time can get you in just as much trouble as being too forward, and expect abandonment to be mutual if you started it, so when in doubt, be inclusive. It can't hurt, but getting too settled can.

Natal Venus Sxt DS (Strong)

You can make it obvious what you want here without actually being obvious about it. Just act naturally, and you'll be putting out just the right message of both desire and accommodation that will set things flowing nicely. It's easy to look good without having to overdress the part, casual is classic, and you're it.

Venus in Fifth House

You might want to play all day and night, at least when you first get here, so parcel up your pleasures and enjoy them one at a time so as not to waste the taste. You can be serious without seeming serious, get what you want by only seeming to put your toe in the water. It's just the game you want, so relax and enjoy it.

Natal Mars Tri AS (Strong)

You should find your stamina level increasing here -- or, at least you find it easier to get the job done without having to waste extra energy. Your first stroke is usually the right one, so you save energy by not having to repeat efforts in order to create accomplishment. Easy and invigorating.

Mars in Eighth House

The hidden side of things draws your energies here, whether it's exploring an ancient building or an ancient myth. You gain from letting others do some of the digging and sharing both resources and results -- some of which you may recognize as having been your own in an earlier time. Push to extend your credit, and it will come.

Natal Moon On AS (Medium)

You're more likely to wear your heart on your sleeve here, and when you're asked for an opinion, you'll spill out just how you feel until someone stops you. It's a great place to be if you're selling things, as you'll have a never-ending supply of reasons to buy, because what you'll really be selling is yourself. Sincerity comes easy here, but so does gullibility -- when your emotions are most fully in swing, they may outweigh your more considered forms of judgment. Premature conclusions based on instant reads can get you into situations where extraction may not come easy. The bottom line is that both the scenery and the people touch you in especially personal ways, hitting a chord that makes you resonate with whatever is going on, whatever that might be. Your inclination and ability to "go native" will be strong because you feel for the environmental and social rhythms here. Your challenge will be to maintain your inner personality and identity while swaying with the winds of change in the local surroundings. Although this may feel like home, remember in the beginning at least, it's home for those who already live there more than you, so learn their habits well before you start dressing in them. What you feel, in the end, comes from your heart, not what's going on around you.

Moon in Twelfth House

Blurting out your feelings can get you in trouble here, so if you have issues, raise them cautiously and in company you know you can trust. It's what you don't know that can hurt you -- both about yourself and the people you're dealing with. You needn't be paranoid, just properly cautious, maybe a little more than usual.

Natal Jupiter Sxt DS (Medium)

It's easier to come off like you really are ahead of the game here, simply by being optimistic and making the first step, any step. You roll right into the trends and probably look like you're leading them, and all without much effort. A positive attitude comes easy, and it eases your way anywhere you show up.

Jupiter in Fifth House

Your creative space here can be enormous once you find where you can spread out and do what you really want. You can not only take advantage of what's here, you can introduce new approaches that add your own twist and take root as if they were native. It's a fertile field for your imagination if you think and play big.

Natal Pluto On DS (Mild)

This will likely be a place of considerable challenge, somewhere you will change or be changed ineluctably and without quarter. In English, that's do or die for you and those around you, though not necessarily quite that literal. You'll find that either you don't have much choice about what goes on here or that you have to take total control in order to be sure of getting what you want. It may be a great place for life lessons, but they may not be easy, at least at first. Faith, and what it takes to follow it, is at a premium here. Determination is the name of the game, and be as willing to force a hand as to have your own forced, depending on who's better armed. Know when to hold up, fold up, walk away, or run and you'll be OK. Stay here for long and you'll be a changed person, but don't feel you have to, because no one expects it of you. But when you just can't help it, this is where you'll find a run for your money, where you'll be playing for keeps.

Pluto in Sixth House

You can impose a routine on yourself here more forcefully than may be appropriate or even healthy. Everyday "must-do" chores can turn into mountains to surmount if you obsess on them, so be willing to slack off every now and then just for sanity's sake. Let the rhythm keep itself, don't oversteer.

Natal Saturn/Uranus On IC (Mild)

This is probably not a soft place to be, but brings out the flintier and more exacting and demanding side of your nature. The geology here, literally and figuratively, exposes rocky core that existence reduces to. Great for exploration, discovery -- a little on the harsh side for romance.

Natal Uranus On DS (Mild)

This is bound to be a place that will open your eyes, and you should probably keep them pretty wide open while you're here. The potential for exciting, revelatory events is high, as is the chance of getting into sudden disputes, accidents, or intermittent reversals of fortune. In other words, expect the unexpected and you won't be disappointed. This is partially because you bring an edge of newness and originality onto the scene which can charge and polarize people in different directions. The discovery factor is way up, both for you and those you deal with, so be willing to abandon stale approaches and launch out on new journeys at the drop of a hat. The atmosphere can seem explosive at times, as tinder is dry and there are matches lying around. You'll never know what's going to happen when you strike a light, but you probably shouldn't be here if you don't intend to. Petty annoyances (or being petty and annoying) are to be avoided, but embrace the sudden moment, as that is where it's all happening, where your new reality is born.

Uranus in Sixth House

Establishing a routine here may be something of a challenge, bordering upon impossibility. So, it's a natural place to break habits, not establish them, and try new approaches to daily life on a daily basis. You may not always feel up to it, but no sooner do you think that than you find your mind changed yet again.

Natal Sun On DS (Mild)

You shine with a brighter light here, and you can put out more personal influence and have it match the surroundings more here than in other places. On the other hand, you can be pulled into an ego trip without really knowing it, as beckoning flattery can draw you out beyond your real supply line. Nevertheless, it will feel like your Sun is always rising and you're basking in the blooming light of day, because that's literally the case. After a fashion, you'll feel like you were born here and that your flowers were made to blossom in this fertile soil. That may or may not be a guarantee of long-term success, but it can do a lot to fuel it. Because you feel you're on familiar ground, you can project yourself with greater confidence, since you, in some very inner sense, "speak the language" and identify with local issues and culture. You'll be well-received for this very reason, but always remember that in some more temporal sense you're a "come-here" and not a "from-here," so don't overstep boundaries like you own the place. Speak from your heart and you'll be heard, but don't presume to speak from the hearts of others.

Sun in Sixth House

This may be more a place to come for work than for play, but the change could do you good, nevertheless. New habits you pick up can serve you well, and there's a lot to be learned from the surroundings, perhaps more than you think. If you roll up your sleeves and dig in, you'll find the payback is plenty.

Paran Latitude Lines

Moon-Mars Latitude Line at 45N55'33"

You can let it all out here in sometimes explosive ways, so you might think of reining yourself in ahead of time. Strong feelings are the order of the day and lurk in the environment, which can make for passions of all sorts, especially those that inspire action. Trigger points abound, most especially yours, so make sure your safety lock is on, right up until you really mean to take aim and fire. It's really easy to fly off the handle simply because of the rush of feelings and the available strength to express them. Focus before you vent so that you've got real impact that you can justify later, to yourself and others in the neighborhood.

Venus-Mars Latitude Line at 46N27'41"

This could certainly be your pleasure dome if you are the least inclined to make it so. That sexy sparkle, personal magnetism, charm, and charisma that you see on the silver screen becomes yours to call upon when you walk out the door. Desire and opportunity meet for you here, and all you have to do is choose the stage and play the part. It's not a free ride, of course, and certainly not passive. It requires that you throw yourself into living here and embrace every chance to live life to the max that comes your way, even when it's troublesome. You want to be a star, you got to put up with the paparazzi. If that sounds too exhausting, take a pass on it. If not, head this way and let the party begin.

C*C*G Planets on Angles

Transits to Angles

Location charts respond to transits very much like your natal chart. Although Jupiter, for instance, may not be transiting your natal Ascendant right now, it is transiting your relocated Ascendant somewhere, and that somewhere is likely where you'll easily get a lot of extra attention and enhanced personal prospects if you go there or start doing business with people there. The same goes for the rest of the planets, so you can travel to seek or to escape their transits at the place of your choice.

Progressions to Angles

Although you can't escape your natal progressions, you can go experience them someplace else, particularly where a favorable progressed planet relocates right on an angle and thus gets extra emphasis. As with transits, your progressed relocation paths will tell you where it's happening according to the nature of each planet. Being that they are progressions rather than transits, the effect will be more internal than external, but noticeable all the same.

Transit Neptune Sxt AS (Strong)

Folks around here may be seeing you as an outlet for their ideals and a mouthpiece for their hopes and potentials -- or at least you'll be seen as one who deeply understands them. That's in the wind for some time to come, so take the time to explore how you fit into the local dream and what part you can play in it.

Transit Pluto Tri AS (Strong)

You're in for a few years of engendering a lot of faith in yourself here, just by showing up. You look reliable, somehow, like when the chips are down you can pull everyone through, so you might as well live up to the potential and be a fount of certainty to those around you. If you say it will be OK, it will.

Transit Jupiter Tri DS (Strong)

This locality can provide you with particularly strong support of a very positive nature this year -- especially in areas where you want to be part of new and cutting-edge operations. In general, the latest that's going on here will tend to welcome you to join in, as it looks like you fit right into the picture.

Progressed Mars On MC (Medium)

A long-term ability to focus on career and professional matters is coming to light here, so it could be a good place to get work and promote the work you are doing. It's not so much the physical energy itself that's on the rise, but your growing inclination to put your shoulder to the wheel in areas that have real effect.

Transit Saturn Sxt DS (Medium)

You're in for a year or so of fairly consistent support from the situation in this locale, at least insofar as you show yourself to be a part of its establishment and don't rock the boat. People look to you for security, so remember the feeling for when it comes time to reverse the process.

Progressed Sun On DS (Mild)

You're experiencing a grand life sunrise here, so you might travel to check out the feeling. For the last several decades this place would have kept you in the dark, behind the scenes doing problem-solving; but that's behind you, here at least, so this could be a place for a long-term ego boost and a growing infusion of self-confidence.
